QUEEN CITY LAW IS A FIRM SPECIALISING IN CONSTRUCTION AND PROPERTY, IMMIGRATION AND COMMERCIAL LAW

John Jon is a solicitor and barrister at Queen City Law. He began working at the firm in September 2007 after three years at another CBD law firm.

John was born in Bangkok (Thailand) and lived in Saudi Arabia for more than ten years. He graduated with a Bachelor of Law and a Bachelor of Commerce (International Business) from the University of Auckland in 2004 and was admitted to the bar in October 2004. He is bilingual, fluent in both English and Korean. John possesses a great passion for the game of soccer and his hobby therefore involves anything involving soccer while his interests in basketball and golf illustrates his openness towards sports in general due to the excitement, competitiveness and team-work such games invoke.

John is also involved in the community as a captain of a local Korean soccer team in Auckland.

Prendos Property and Construction Law Firm of the Year Award Winner
2008, 2009, 2010 & 2011

John has always had business flair as well as a legal mindset demonstrated by his young leadership role as a director of a company which imported electronic goods since 2003. John believes that this direct business experience makes him better prepared to assist clients reach their commercial objective rather than getting bogged down in legalistic matters.

John is a highly motivated person with a "can do" attitude. John has an ability to couple traditional approaches to tackling problems and apply innovative and novel methods in order to reach a successful result for his clients. John is hard working and has efficient time management skills.

His main goal is to become a "good lawyer" by working closely with his clients to ultimately fulfil their needs in order to obtain the optimum resolution and maximum satisfaction for all involved.

Brookers Boutique Law Firm of the Year Award
Winner 2007, 2008 & 2009
