Bradley So Senior Solicitor

Bradley So is a senior solicitor at Queen City Law and he manages the immigration team. He graduated from the University of Auckland with a LLB/BCom degree in 2008.

Bradley specializes in Business Migration, Foreign Investments and Commercial Law. He has represented a number of ultra high net worth individuals under the Investor Programme. To date such QCL clients have invested well in excess of $100,000,000.00 in our economy. He aims to provide a one stop shop for business and investor migrants.

In particular, he assists with ensuring compliance with the Overseas Investment Office, conducting due diligence on the commercial transaction, drafting commercial agreements, structuring the investment to ensure compliance with the investor programme in New Zealand.

He works closely with Marcus with a view to add value to client's specific needs. He has excellent relationships with other professionals including major banks, accountants, investment bankers, property developers and asset managers.
